Sermon Title: Change As Spiritual Practice: The Transformation of our Principles

Length: 20 minutes

Includes: Aligned Religious Exploration Themes & Resources, Reading(s), Blessing, and Music Suggestions.

Description:

Our living tradition is blooming. We live out our values within our “living tradition” which calls us to question our past, open ourselves to new understanding, and evolve. The purpose of the UUA, our sources, and our principles are transforming. We will explore the proposed revisions and consider our roles in this process as individuals and as a congregation. Join us as we reflect on our “living tradition” from the theological lens of change as a spiritual practice.

Sermon Title: Unopened Gifts: The Call to Live into our Calling

Length: 20-22 minutes

Includes: Aligned Religious Exploration Themes & Resources, Reading(s), Prayer, and Music Suggestions

Description: We are amid a perfect storm of socio-economic oppression exacerbated by the life-threatening pandemic. As individuals and as congregations, we have sacred work we are called to do. As we work for justice, how might we explore spiritually grounded intersectionality by challenging our old structures? Join us as we reflect on “The Great Resignation” and its ramifications on both our spirits and the desires of our hearts. As priorities change and the future appears uncertain, we will explore what it means to open our divine-given gifts and answer The Call to live into our Calling.
